1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

In the Claim: the status identifier of claim 35 has been changed.

Claim 35.     [[~~(new)~~]] (previously presented) The lighting apparatus of claim 30, wherein the first axis is generally perpendicular to the second axis.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 1 is allowed because the prior art whether individually or in combination does not teach the combination of an elongated envelop including a light transmissive portion defining a first axis along its length, an LED mounted in the envelop, a reflector positioned in relation to the LED such that light emitted from the LED is directed from the reflector toward the light transmissive portion with the reflector adapted to focus light toward a second axis substantially perpendicular to the first axis and comprising a material having greater diffusing properties along the first axis than along the second axis. Claims 2, 3, 8 and 10 to 13 depend on and further limit allowed claim 1 and as such are also allowed.

Claim 25 is allowed because the prior art whether individually or in combination does not teach the combination of an extruded elongated envelope defining a first axis along its length and including a light transmissive portion running substantially parallel to the first axis with an opaque portion adjacent and integrally formed with the light transmissive portion, a plurality of LEDs mounted in and aligned with the first axis, and a reflector disposed adjacent the LEDs such that light emitted from the LEDs is directed from the reflector towards the light transmissive portion and dispersed along the light transmissive portion. Claim 26 depends on and further limits claim 25 and as such is also allowed.

Claim 27 is allowed because the prior art whether individually or in combination does not teach the combination of an elongated envelope including a first and second opaque leg interconnected by a light transmissive portion and defining a first axis and a second axis transverse to the first axis, a plurality of LEDs mounted in the envelope with a reflector positioned in relation to the LEDs such that light emitted from the LEDs is directed from the reflector toward the light transmissive portion. Claims 15 to 24, 28 and 29 depend on and further limit allowed claim 27 and as such are also allowed.

Claim 30 is allowed because the prior art whether individually or in combination does not teach the combination of an elongated envelope including a light transmissive portion, an LED attached to a flexible power cord, a reflector positioned in relation to the LED such that the light emitted from the LED is directed from the reflector toward the light transmissive portion with the reflector configured to focus light towards a first axis and to disperse light along a second axis. Claims 31 to 35 and 37 depend on and further limit allowed claim 31 and as such are also allowed.
